Don't get bogged down!

Rain boots are a fashionable solution for most winter weather these days, and if they are insulated like Bogs, they will take on just about anything a Canadian will encounter. Bogs for adults have been selling very well, and kids have also embraced their playful prints. Fall 2012 will see the introduction of a snake print for boys and more florals for girls. Baby Bogs are 100% waterproof and machine washable.

Exclusively for independents

Bangles are a line of shoes with matching shoulder bags and carved wooden bracelets made by artisans in Bangladesh. This is the first steps in a program whose aim is to find alternative sourcing to China while using indigenous materials and providing employment opportunities for small-scale artisans in developing countries. Bangles are available exclusively to medium to better grade independent retailers, and are also targeted to resort retailers. The Fall/Winter version is called Yurtzars, in recognition of the heavy felt Mongolian yurt.
